The evidence of the plaintiff having been presented to the Court, and there having been presented to the Court, and there having been corroboration as to the plaintiff's residence in the State of Idaho for for more than six full weeks prior to the filing of the complaint, and the Court finds that defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty of this plaintiff, and that the allegations of the complaint are sustained by the evidence, and the plaintiff has been a resident of Idaho for more than six full weeks, immediately preceding the filing of this action;

DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above-entitled cause came on for hearing before the Court in Open Court at Boise, County of Ada, State of Idaho, on the 18th day of July, 1947. The plaintiff appeared in person, and by his attorney, Benj. F. Harrison, and the defendant did not appear, either in person or by attorney.

It appeared to the Court that the defendant had been served with process by personal service of summons and complaint as required by law and had failed to appear and answer the plaintiff's complaint filed in the above-entitled cause, or otherwise plead thereto, and that no further time had been granted the defendant in which to appear and answer or plead to said cause, and it further appearing from plaintiff's affidavit and satisfactory evidence adduced that the defendant is not, and has not been, in military service as contemplated by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and the Court had ordered the Clerk to enter the default of said defendant according to law.

The plaintiff introduced evidence in behalf of his complaint, which was corroborated by one witness, and the cause was submitted to the Court for decision and after considering the evidence, the Court finds the issues in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that said plaintiff is entitled to have thebonds of matrimony existing between the plaintiff and defendant dissolved, and to be divorced from the defendant.

VARDELLA ELAINE BURR, Plaintiff,

vs.

JAMES BURR, Defendant.

JUDGMENT AND DECREE.

The above action came on for trial before the Honorable Isaac McLoyd, District Judge, this 3rd day of July, 1947. Plaintiff appeared in person and with her counsel, Black and Black of Pocatello, Idaho; defendant did not appear, either in person or by counsel.

It appearing from the records and files that the defendant has been duly and regularly served with summons and complaint, and has failed to appear, answer or plead thereto, and the time for defendant to appear or answer has now expired, and the Clerk has duly entered the default of defendant for such failure.

Plaintiff and her witness were duly sworn and testified in support of the allegations of plaintiff's complaint, and the Court finds from the evidence that the allegations of plaintiff's complaint have been proven by evidence free and clear of all legal objection, that defendant is not engaged in the Military or Armed Services of the United States Government or in any Department of Public Health and that plaintiff is entitled an absolute divorce from the defendant and to the restoration of her former name. The making and entering of formal findings of fact and conclusions of law were waived by defendant's failure to appear or plead herein, and the Court being fully advised in the premises and good cause appearing therefor;

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby dissolved and plaintiff be, and she is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant.

That plaintiff's name before the marriage of Vardella Elaine Viles is hereby restored to her use.

ANDREE MARIE LOUISE CHAVAGNE, :
Plaintiff, :
vs. : DECREE OF DIVORCE
ALFRED C. CHAVAGNE, :
Defendant. :

This cause came regularly on to be heard before the Hon. L. E. Glennon , Judge of the above-entitled Court, sitting without a jury at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, on the 5th day of August , 1947. The plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorneys, Merrill and Merrill. The defendant did not appear either in person or by attorney. It appeared to the Court that the defendant had been duly and regularly served with summons and that thereafter he made and filed herein his personal and voluntary appearance whereby he submitted to the full jurisdiction of this Court, waived the statutory time within which to plead, declined to answer plaintiff's complaint, and consented that a default might be entered and said cause set for hearing without further notice to him.

It further appeared to the Court that said defendant is not in the military or naval service of the United States within the purview of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, and that his default for failing to plead to plaintiff's complaint has been duly and regularly entered.

It further appeared from the evidence offered and received for and on behalf of the plaintiff that all of the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true and correct and such are found to be the facts, and that a decree of divorce should be entered in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant.

The Court being now fully advised in the law and the premises, NOW, THEREFORE:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED, AND THIS DOES ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE That the marriage now existing between the plaintiff, Andree Marie Louise Chavagne, and the defendant, Alfred C. Chavagne, contracted by the parties at Stavelot, Belgium, on the 25th day of July, 1936, be and the same is hereby dissolved and held for naught, and that said parties are freed of all obligations thereof, and that each of said parties is restored to the status of a single person.

It appeared to the Court that the defendant had been duly and regularly served with summons and failed within the time allowed by law or at all to appear and plead to the complaint of the plaintiff and defendant's default for thus failing to appear has been duly and regularly entered. Evidence was introduced for and on behalf of the plaintiff, from which evidence it appears that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief demanded by her complaint.

Now, therefore, the Court being fully advised in the law and the premises:

GEORGE B. EDWARDS,

Defendant and Cross-Complainant.

This case came on for hearing before the undersigned, to whom said cause had been regularly transferred by order heretofore entered and on file in this court, reference to which order is hereby made for all of its contents, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, H. J. Swanson, of Pocatello, Idaho, and thereupon the court proceeded to examine the file, records, and proceedings had herein, from which it appears to the court that the defendant heretofore filed an answer to the complaint and also filed a cross-complaint, but that under date of August 7, 1947, the parties themselves and also by their attorneys, entered into a written stipulation wherein and whereby the defendant withdrew his answer and also withdrew his cross-complaint, and further it was stipulated that the plaintiff could at the convenience of the Court and at the convenience of the undersigned judge, present her proof in this cause to the court without any notice thereof being given to the defendant as to time and place of such hearing. And it was further stipulated therein that in the event a decree would be entered in favor of the plaintiff, that there should be awarded to the plaintiff her separate property described in paragraph 4 of the complaint and also all of the community property described in paragraph 5 of the complaint excepting the Chevrolet coupe which should be awarded to the defendant as his property.

And it was also stipulated that said other and additional personal property, namely one Hotpoint electric stove, one kitchen set and chairs, one dining room set, and carpeting throughout the house occupied by the plaintiff which had been acquired by the parties to this action subsequent to the commencement of this action, should also be awarded to the plaintiff, and said stiuplation further provided that the defendant should be relieved from the payment of further attorneys fees to the plaintiff, and also should be relieved from the further payment of any support money to the plaintiff upon the signing of a decree of divorce, which stipulation was submitted to the court for its consideration, and the same was by this court approved.

Thereupon the court proceeded to hear the evidence in this case, for which purpose the plaintiff and one witness was duly and regularly sworn and the court having heard and considered the evidence and being fully advised in the premises, finds that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the plaintiff and that there be awarded to her the property as provided for in said stipulation, and that the defendant be relieved from the payment of further attorneys fees, and the payment of further support money to the plaintiff. Now, therefore, upon the evidence heard by the court and upon the stipulation herein referred to and which has been approved by this court, and upon the files and the records,

IT IS ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, MAE EDWARDS, and the defendant, GEORGE B. EDWARDS, be and the same hereby are dissolved, and each of said parties is hereby restored to the status of a single person.

One dining room set and carpeting throughout the house occupied by the plaintiff on the 7th of August, 1947.

IT IS FURTHER ADJUDGED AND DECREED THAT that certain automobile described as one Chevrolet coupe, and described in paragraph 5 of the complaint, be and the same hereby is awarded to the defendant as his sole and separate property.

IT IS FURTHER ADJUDGED AND DECREED That the defendant be and he hereby is relieved from the payment to the plaintiff of any further attorneys fees and he is also relieved and released from the further payment of any support money to the plaintiff in any amount whatsoever.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED That the plaintiff's maiden name, namely Delilah Mae ~~Lee~~ Byrd be and the same hereby is restored to the plaintiff.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED That the answer of the defendant heretofore filed in this cause and the cross-complaint of the defendant heretofore filed in this cause be and the same hereby is ordered withdrawn in harmony with the stipulation entered into between the parties to this action.

JUDGMENT AND DECREE.

The above-entitled action having come on for trial before the Honorable Isaac McDougall, District Judge, this 12th day of August, 1947. Plaintiff appeared in person and with her attorneys, Black and Black of Pocatello, Idaho; defendant did not appear, either in person or by attorney.

It appearing from the records and files that the defendant has been duly and regularly served with Summons and Complaint, and has failed to appear, answer or plead thereto, and the time for defendant to appear or plead thereto has now expired, and the Clerk has duly entered the default of defendant for such failure.

Plaintiff and her witness were duly sworn and testified in support of the allegations of the complaint, and the Court finds from the evidence that all of the allegations of plaintiff's complaint have been proven by evidence free and clear of all legal objection, that defendant is not engaged in the armed services of the United States or in any Department of Public Health, and that plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for. The making and entering of formal findings of fact and conclusions of law were waived by defendant's failure to appear and plead herein, and the Court being fully advised in the premises and good cause appearing therefor:

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby dissolved and plaintiff be, and she is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant.

This cause came regularly on to be heard before the Court sitting without a jury at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, on the 8th day of August, 1947. The plaintiff appeared in person and by her attorneys, Merrill and Merrill. The defendant did not appear either in person or by attorney. It appeared to the Court that the defendant had been duly and regularly served with summons and that thereafter he made and filed herein his personal and voluntary appearance, whereby he submitted to the full jurisdiction of this Court, waived the statutory time within which to plead, declined to answer plaintiff's complaint, and consented that default might be entered and the said cause set for hearing without further notice to him.

It further appeared to the Court that the said defendant is not in the military or naval service of the United States within the purview of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, and that his default for failing to plead to plaintiff's complaint has been duly and regularly entered.

It further appeared from the evidence offered and received for and on behalf of the plaintiff that all of the material allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true and correct and such are found to be the fact and that a decree of divorce should be entered in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that the care, custody and control of Christopher Stafford, the minor child of said parties, should be awarded to the plaintiff and that the defendant should be required to pay to the plaintiff for the support of said minor child the sum of $40.00 per month.

AND THE COURT BEING FULLY ADVISED IN THE LAW AND THE PREMISES, NOW THEREFORE:

IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE AND DECREE that the marriage now existing between the plaintiff MarGene Grant Stafford and the defendant Graham Stafford, contracted by said parties on the 24th day of February, 1944, at Lincoln, Nebraska, be and the same is hereby dissolved and held for naught, and that said parties are freed from all obligations thereof and that each of said parties is restored to the status of a single person.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the care, custody and control of Christopher Stafford, the minor child of said parties, be and the same is hereby awarded to the plaintiff, MarGene Grant Stafford.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the defendant, Graham Stafford, pay to the plaintiff, MarGene Grant Stafford, the sum of $40.00 per month for the care and education of the child, beginning with September 1, 1947, and on the 1st day of each and every month thereafter until further ordered by this Court. The Court reserves the right to increase such amount as and when a change may occur in the status of the parties or the ability of the defendant to pay.

This cause came on regularly for hearing before the Honorable L. E. Glenn, District Judge of the above Court, at Pocatello, Bannock County, Idaho, on the 4 day of August, 1947. Plaintiff appeared in person and with his counsel, Black & Black of Pocatello, Idaho; defendant did not appear, either in person or by counsel.

IT APPEARED to the Court that Summons and Complaint in this cause were duly and regularly served by personal service thereof upon the defendant, but that said defendant failed within the time allowed by law, or at all, to appear and plead to or answer the Complaint of the plaintiff herein; and

IT FURTHER APPEARED that defendant is not in the Armed Forces of the United States and that the default of the defendant for failing to appear and plead was duly and regularly entered. Evidence both oral and documentary was thereupon introduced for and on behalf of plaintiff by plaintiff and a witness, free and clear from all objections as to its competency and from which evidence it appears that all of the material allegations of plaintiff's Complaint are true and correct and such are found to be the facts, and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed for in the Complaint.

IT FURTHER APPEARED THAT, subsequent to the filing of the Complaint herein, the parties to this action entered into a written Stipulation, by the terms of which they agreed upon the division of the community property, custody of the minor child when born, alimony, support for said child, which Stipulation has been presented to the Court, and the Court further orders that said Stipulation is approved by the Court, and the terms thereof are hereinafter incorporated in this Decree; and that the making and entering of findings of fact and conclusions of law were waived by both parties in said Stipulation, and by the default of the defendant.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Court being fully advised in the premises;

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That plaintiff be, and he is hereby awarded an absolute divorce from the defendant and that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby dissolved and held for naught, and that said parties are, and each of them is restored to the status of a single person.

2. That the care, custody and control of the minor child, when born, is hereby awarded to the defendant.

3. That the defendant is hereby required to assume all of the obligations for the care, custody and control of said child, and will assume and pay any and all doctor bills or expenses in connection with the birth of said child; that plaintiff shall have no right to the custody or control of said child.

4. That the community property of the plaintiff and defendant be awarded to the defendant with the exception of a clock, radio and roll of bedding, and that these articles be awarded to the plaintiff.

The above entitled matter came on regularly to be heard in Open Court at Sandpoint, Idaho, before the Honorable E. V. Boughton, one of the Judges of the Eighth Judicial District of the State of Idaho, in and for the County of Bonner, on the 2nd day of June, 1947, upon the Complaint of Plaintiff. Plaintiff appeared in person by her Attorney, Glenn E. Bandelin; the Defendant did not appear, nor was his Attorney, J. Ward Arney, personally present in Court. A stipulation having been filed, setting the case for trial on the above date, plaintiff and witness were duly sworn and examined relative to said cause, and certain documentary evidence consisting of a Stipulation with respect to child support and custody was introduced. At the conclusion of the trial the Judge of the above entitled Court announced that it was his decision pending further investigation, that the Stipulation with respect to support money was insufficient and that the Court was of the further opinion that the defendant should be required to pay the entire amount of Plaintiff's attorneys' fee. The Court having taken the matter under advisement and after duly considering the evidence and from the testimony introduced, and Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law having been waived by stipulation, and the Court being fully advised in the premises and having reached a final conclusion as to the amount of support money to be allowed,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Irene Boylan, and the Defendant, Clarence J. Boylan, be and the same are forever dissolved, and a divorce is hereby granted to the Plaintiff upon

This cause came on regularly for hearing the 14 day of July, 1947, before the Court without jury on the plaintiff's complaint filed herein. The defendant appeared neither in person nor by attorney and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant had been regularly served with process according to law, and that the time in which the said defendant was required to demur, answer or plead to said complaint within the time required by law has been duly and regularly entered herein, the Court proceeded with the trial of said cause.

Witnesses were called, sworn and testified for and on behalf of plaintiff and the case was submitted to the Court for final determination and decision, and the Court having found that the plaintiff and defendant were duly married at Emmett, Idaho, on the 23rd day of June, 1946, and that the plaintiff has been for more than six weeks last past a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho, and that the defendant, disregarding the solemnity of her marriage vows, has caused the plaintiff such mental and physical suffering, pain and anguish as to constitute cruelty according to the statutes of the State of Idaho.

The Court therefore ordered that judgment be entered for the plaintiff and against the defendant in accordance with the prayer of plaintiff's complaint.

WHEREFORE, It is ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE, that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the above named plaintiff and the above named defendant be, and the same are hereby dissolved and the plaintiff and defendant are absolutely freed from all obligations thereof.

CLERK OF COURT,
By Shirley L. McMurtrey
Deputy

The above entitled cause came on regularly to be heard and tried before the Court, sitting without a jury, in Chambers at Boise, in the County of Ada, State of Idaho, upon the 15th day of August, 1947, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Perce Hall, and the defendant appearing not, neither in person, nor by attorney nor otherwise;

Upon said hearing it appeared to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant Eugene Ray had been duly and regularly served with summons in this action in the manner provided by law and that said defendant had failed to appear and answer or otherwise plead to the plaintiff's complaint within the time allowed by law and the default of said defendant having been duly entered according to law, and the Court having heard the testimony introduced in behalf of the plaintiff and in support of the allegations of her complaint and the cause having been submitted;

After duly considering the testimony introduced herein the Court finds the issues upon plaintiff's complaint in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant and upon the first cause of action the Court finds that the defendant has been guilty of habitual intemperance, and upon the second cause of action the Court finds that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to have dissolved the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant;

And the Court further finds that upon the 1st day of August, 1947, the plaintiff and the defendant made and entered into an agreement in writing, in words and figures as follows:

This action having come regularly on for hearing this day, the plaintiff appearing in person and with his attorney, E. T. Knudson, but the defendant did not appear and was not represented.

The Court finds that due and legal service of the Summons in this cause has been made upon the defendant by personal service of the Summons outside of the State of Idaho and within the State of Virginia, in accordance with the law and order of this Court. That after the expiration of the time allowed by law for the entry of an appearance by the defendant herein, and the defendant having failed to file or enter any appearance whatever, the default of the defendant was duly and regularly entered by the Clerk of this Court.

The Court further finds that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree herein, as prayed for in plaintiff's complaint, and that findings of fact and conclusions of law have been expressly waived herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of E. T. Knudson, attorney for the plaintiff,

LAURA WHEELER MAC LEOD,
Plaintiff,
vs.
ALBERT HARRIS MAC LEOD,
Defendant.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause having come regularly on for hearing this day upon the Complaint of the plaintiff and the entry of appearance by the defendant with a written admission of service and consent that the case could be set without further notice. The case having been duly set the plaintiff appeared by her attorneys Whitla & Knudson, but the defendant did not appear and was not represented.

The Court finds that it has acquired due jurisdiction of the defendant by due and personal service upon the defendant and that the defendant has duly entered his appearance herein and by filing a consent that the case could be set any time after 10 A. M. July 17, 1947, the Court has acquired due jurisdiction to hear this cause.

Thereupon and after the case was set and the defendant not appearing the Court proceeded with the hearing, and from the evidence introduced finds that the plaintiff has been a bona fide resident of Kootenai County, Idaho, for more than six weeks next immediately preceeding the commencement of this action.

That the plaintiff and defendant were married at Pasadena, California, June 28, 1939, and ever since have been and now are husband and wife and that there has been born of the marriage of plaintiff and defendant one child, Ruth MacLeod, now aged about 5½ years who is and for a long time since has been and now is residing with and under the care, custody, and control of the plaintiff.

The Court further finds that the parties have no community property and that they have settled all of ther property rights and no property rights are involved in this action.

The Court further finds that the defendant has been guilty of imposing upon the plaintiff personal indignities which are of such a kind and character that it is proper not to set them forth in full, but that they were of such a kind that they caused the plaintiff great and grievous mental pain and suffering and that they continued for such a length of time that they have completely destroyed the peace of mind of plaintiff and that they have continued to such an extent that it is no longer possible for plaintiff and defendant to live together as husband and wife and that by reason thereof the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty towards the plaintiff and that the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce and to the custody of the minor daughter, Ruth MacLeod.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be and the same hereby are vacated, annulled, and set aside, and that the plaintiff, Laura Wheeler MacLeod, be and she hereby is granted a decree of absolute diverce from the defendant, Albert Harris MacLeod, and,

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the plaintiff be and she hereby is awarded the care, custody, and control of the minor daughter, Ruth MacLeod, and that the defendant has the right to visit said child at reasonable times and places.

OLIVER AUGUST WILLIS,

Plaintiff,

vs.

MARGERY LEE WILLIS,

Defendant.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause having come regularly on for hearing this day upon the Complaint of the plaintiff with the written admission of service, entry of appearance, and consent that the case could be set without further notice. The case having been duly set for this day the plaintiff appeared by his attorneys Whith & Knudsen, but the defendant did not appear and was not represented.

The Court finds that it has acquired due jurisdiction of the defendant by due and personal service upon the defendant and that the defendant has duly entered her appearance herein and filed a consent that the case could be heard at any time without further notice and the Court having set the same for hearing for this date the Court has acquired due jurisdiction to hear this cause.

The defendant not appearing the Court proceeded with the hearing and from the evidence introduced finds that the plaintiff has been a bona fide resident of Kootenai County, Idaho, for more than six weeks immediately preceeding the commencement of this action.

That the plaintiff and defendant were married August 14, 1945, and ever since have been and now are husband and wife. That the plaintiff and defendant have no children and no property whatever.

The Court further finds that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty and that she has continuously found fault with the defendant, expressed an open dislike of all of his friends, and made fun of him before his friends, and shown such a dislike for the plaintiff and has made such derogatory remarks about him in the presence of his friends and acquaintances that it has caused them to shun him and that she has insisted on the plaintiff leaving Idaho and that she would not live with him if he did not do so and all of said facts having become known to plaintiff's friends and relatives it has caused him such great and grievous mental pain and suffering that it is no longer possible for plaintiff and defendant to live together as husband and wife and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of absolute divorce from the defendant.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be and the same hereby are vacated, annulled, and set aside, and the plaintiff, Oliver August Willis, be and he hereby is granted a decree of absolute divorce from the defendant, Margery Lee Willis.

Dated this 28th day of July, A. D., 1947.

Betty Lou Thomas, Plaintiff

vs.

This matter came on for hearing in open Court in Shoshone, Idaho, this 8th day of July, 1947, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorney, Ross B. Haddock, and the defendant appearing not, either in person or by anyone for him.

The Court thereupon inspected the Court file and finds that the plaintiff has this day filed herein her affidavit, stating that the defendant is not now in the military service of the United States of America in any capacity whatever, and that the defendant is now employed in the State of California. Thereupon the Court made and entered an order permitting the default of the defendant in this matter to be entered, in case of proper service of summons upon the defendant.

The Court thereupon inspected the another summons issued in this matter and finds that the Clerk of this Court on the 8th day of July, 1947, made and entered an order permitting personal service of another summons herein on the defendant in Los Angeles County, California. The Court further finds that on June 16, 1947, the defendant was served with summons in Los Angeles County, California, as shown by the sworn affidavit of service attached to said summons. The Court found that the statutory time allowed the defendant for making an appearance and pleading to said complaint has expired, and that the defendant is in default for want of an answer and for failure to plead to the complaint on file herein, and the Court ordered that the default of the defendant be entered. Thereupon a Clerk's default was entered.

Thereupon the plaintiff and Myrtle Cox were duly sworn and testified in behalf of the plaintiff, whereupon the plaintiff rested.

The Court having seen and heard the testimony in behalf of the plaintiff and having seen and inspected the files and records in this matter and being fully advised in the premises, finds that all of the allegations of the plaintiff's complaint are true, and that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief prayed in her complaint.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

1. That the marriage between plaintiff, Betty Lou Thomas, and the defendant, Ted Eugene Thomas, be and the same is hereby disolved, and that said parties and each of them are freed and absolutely released from the bonds of matrimony and of all obligations thereof.

2. That the custody of the minor child born to said plaintiff and defendant, to-wit: Virgil Ray Thomas, be awarded to the plaintiff.

3. That the cost of this action be taxed to the plaintiff.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

The above-entitled cause came on for hearing before the Court in Open Court at Boise, County of Ada, State of Idaho, on the 29th day of August, 1947. The plaintiff appeared in person, and through her attorney, Benj. F. Harrison, and the defendant did not appear, either in person or by attorney.

It appeared to the Court that the defendant had been served with process by personal service of summons as required by law and had failed to appear and answer the plaintiff's complaint filed in the said cause, or otherwise plead thereto, and that no further time had been granted the defendant in which to appear and anser or plead to said cause, and it further appeared from plaintiff's affidavit and satisfactory evidence adduced that defendant is not now, and for more than six months immediately last past has not been, in any branch of military service as contemplated by the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and the Court had ordered the Clerk to enter the default of said defendant according to law.

The plaintiff testified in her own behalf on the allegations of her complaint, and her testimony relative to her residence was corroborated by the testimony of one witness, and the cause was submitted to the Court for decision and after considering the evidence, and being fully advised, the Court finds the issues in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, and that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty toward the plaintiff as alleged in plaintiff's complaint, and that said plaintiff is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony existing between plaintiff and defendant dissolved, and to be divorced from the defendant;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED as follows:

That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby, dissolved, and the plaintiff divorced from the defendant.

IT IS FURTHER AGREED as between the parties hereto that it appears from said audit made by said auditors that the said party of the first part and the said party of the second part made overpayments of their income tax for the years, 1943, 1944 and 1945, and applications for the refund or repayment of said overpayment of income tax with interest have or will be made by the said party of the first part and said party of the second part; and that it cannot now be determined what amount, if any, with interest, will be paid or refunded by the Government at the present time. IT IS THEREFORE AGREED by and between the parties hereto that in the event any repayment and interest is paid or refunded by the Government by reason of said overpayment of income tax by said party of the first part and said party of the second part that as and when such repayment or refund, with interest, is paid, such amounts of repayment shall be divided equally as and when received between the said party of the first part and said party of the second part and shall become the sole and separate property of the respective parties when the money is so divided.

This cause came on regularly for hearing on the 14th day of July, 1947, before the court without a jury on the plaintiff's complaint filed herein. The defendant appeared neither in person or by attorney and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant had been regularly served with proceds according to law, and that the time in which the said defendant was required by law to demur to, answer, or plead to said complaint has expired, and this his default for so failing to plead to said complaint within the time required by law has been duly and regularly entered herein, the Court proceeded with the trial of said cause.

Witnesses were called, sworn, and testified on behalf of the plaintiff and the case was submitted to the Court for final determination and decision and the Court having found that the plaintiff and defendant were duly married in Blackfoot, Idaho on the 20th day of May, 1927 and the plaintiff has been, for more than six weeks preceeding the commencement of this action, a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho; that born to this union were four children, ages and names as follows: Robert W. Combs, Jr., age 17; Lloyd L. Combs, age 16; Kenneth R. Combs, age 13; and Judy Anna Combs, age 9; and that the plaintiff has in her care, contrel, and custody all of the children above named with the exception of Lloyd L. Combs; and that the defendant, disregarding the solemnity of his marriage vows and having the ability so to do, willfuly neglected and failed to provide for the plaintiff the common necessaries of life for one year last past, such as to constitute willful neglect, as defined by the statutes of the State of Idaho, and further that the defendant, disregarding the solemnity of his marriage vows, has caused the plaintiff much mental suffering, pain, and anguish and is such as to constitute extreme cruelty as defined by the statutes of the State of Idaho.

The Court ordered that judgment be entered for the plaintiff and against the defendant in accordance with the prayer of the plaintiff's complaint, with the exception of awarding the full care, custody, and control of Lloyd L. Combs, to the plaintiff, inasmuch as he is not within the jurisdiction of the Court.

WHEREFORE, It is ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE, and DECREE, that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the above named plaintiff and the above named defendant, be, and the same are hereby dissolved, and the plaintiff and defendant are absolutely freed from all obligations thereof;

That there is awarded to the plaintiff the full care, control, and custody of the said minor children, Robert W.

JUDGMENT

The above matter came on regularly to be heard in this Court in Caldwell, Canyon County, Idaho, without a jury, upon the plaintiff's complaint, the plaintiff appearing in person by her attorney, Cleve Groome, the defendant having been duly and regularly served with summons and process herein, and time having elapsed for his appearance and answering plaintiff's complaint, and he appearing not either in person or by an attorney, as to the complaint and summons served upon him herein; and a proper non-military affidavit has been made and filed herein, and an order declaring that the defendant was not engaged in the military service of the United States, as defined by the Act of Congress, and a default having been entered against him; and evidence having been produced on the part of the plaintiff herein and the plaintiff having closed her case, and the Court having duly considered the same and having arrived at his conclusions in the matter, from which it appears that the plaintiff is entitled to judgment as prayed for in her complaint upon the grounds of desertion and non-support, and the court waives the necessity of filing findings of fact and conclusions of law, but findsthat the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true; now, therefore, it is

ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, and this does ORDER, ADJUDGE and DECREE, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and they are hereby dissolved, and the plaintiff and defendant are absolutely divorced one from the other; it is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, that the plaintiff have the care, custody and control of the said minor child of plaintiff and defendant, to-wit: John Michael Larsen; and that the said defendant may visit the child at all reasonable times.

DECREE OF DIVORCE

This cause having come regularly on for hearing this day upon the Complaint of the plaintiff taken as confessed by the defendant whose default has been duly entered herein upon proper proof of personal service in accordance with the orders of this Court duly made. The Court finds that a due and sufficient affidavit has been duly filed herein showing that the defendant is not in the Military Service of the United States and after the expiration of the time allowed by law and after the filing of said affidavit the Clerk of this Court duly entered the default of said defendant.

The plaintiff appeared with his attorneys Whitla & Knudsen, but the defendant did not appear and was not represented. The Court finds that it has acquired due jurisdiction of the defendant and has due and full jurisdiction to enter the decree as prayed for. After hearing the affidavit introduced the Court finds that the plaintiff has been a bona fide resident of Kootenai County, Idaho, for more than six weeks immediately preceeding the commencement of this action. That the plaintiff and defendant were married in June, 1937, and ever since have been and still are husband and wife and that the plaintiff and defendant have three children, namely Darl Wilson, son, aged 8 years; Gladys Wilson, daughter, aged 6 years; and James Wilson, son, aged 1½ years who are living with the defendant and to whom the plaintiff is paying $240.00 a month for the care and support of said children.

The Court further finds that the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty towards the plaintiff and has pursued a course belittling him and doing acts calculated to belittle him in the presence of his friends and acquaintances and that the acts became a matter of public notoriety to such an extent that it caused the plaintiff great and grievous mental pain and suffering and that it is impossible for the plaintiff and defendant to live together as husband and wife and that by reason thereof the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce as prayed for.

The Court finds that the plaintiff has transferred to the defendant the house in which the defendant lives and that the same is not within the jurisdiction of this Court.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between plaintiff and defendant be and the same hereby are vacated, annulled and set aside and that the plaintiff Otis E. Wilson be and he hereby is granted an absolute decree of divorce from the plaintiff Irene R. Wilson, on the ground of extreme cruelty

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED that the plaintiff pay to the defendant for the support of minor children the sum of $240.00 a month being at the rate of $80.00 a month for each of said children during their minority.

FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW, AND DECREE.

This cause having come on duly and regularly for hearing before the Honorable Miles S. Johnson, Judge of the above Court, in Chambers, at Lewiston, Nez Perce County, Idaho, on this 12 day of August, 1947, and the plaintiff appearing in person and by and through his attorney of record, and the defendant having been personally served with summons and complaint in this action in the State of Pennsylvania, on July 21, 1947, pursuant to an Order of this Court duly and regularly entered authorizing service of summons outside the State of Idaho, and the defendant having failed to appear, answer or demurrer to the plaintiff's complaint within the time allowed by law, or at all, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court and the affidavit of the plaintiff on file herein that the defendant is not entitled to the benefits of the Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended, and the default of the defendant having been duly and regularly entered, and the Court having heard the evidence and being fully advised in the premises,

FINDS:

I.

That the defendant was personally served with summons and complaint in this action pursuant to the Order of this Court authorizing service of summons and complaint outside the State of Idaho, on July 21, 1947, in the State of Pennsylvania; that the defendant has failed to answer plaintiff's complaint or otherwise appear within the time allowed by law; that the defendant is not now and has not been during the pendency of this action, in the military service of the United States in any capacity whatsoever, and is not entitled to the benefits of the Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act of 1940, as amended.

II.

That the plaintiff and defendant intermarried at Waverly, New York, on October 4, 1932, and ever since have been and are now husband and wife.

III.

That the plaintiff is now and has been for more than six weeks immediately prior to the filing of this suit an actual bona fide resident of the State of Idaho.

IV.

That there has been born as the issue of said marriage three children, to-wit: Raymond E. Farr, Jr., of the age of 13 years, Edward C. Farr, of the age of 11 years, and Vernadeen Farr, of the age of 9 years; that said children are in the State of Pennsylvania, and are not subject to the jurisdiction of this Court.

V.

That the parties have no property, and no property rights need be adjudicated in this action.

VI.

That the defendant, without cause or provocation constantly quarreled with the plaintiff during the time they lived together as husband and wife; that the said defendant has over a period of time openly and notoriously associated with other men, all against the wishes and desires of the plaintiff; that said defendant on numerous occasions agreed to reform and assume her obligations as a wife and mother to the children but that such promises were invariably broken and the defendant would resume her associations with other men, all of which caused the plaintiff grievous mental anguish and suffering.

From the foregoing Facts, the Court CONCLUDES:

That the plaintiff is entitled to a decree of divorce from the defendant on the grounds of cruelty.

NOW THEREFORE In consideration of the premises and the foregoing Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, it is ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

That the bonds of matrimony now and heretofore existing between the plaintiff and defendant be, and the same are hereby dissolved, and the plaintiff is granted an absolute decree of divorce from the defendant.

The above matter came on regularly to be heard at Boise, Idaho, without a jury, upon the plaintiff's complaint, the plaintiff appearing in person by his attorney, Cleve Groome, the defendant having been duly and regularly served with summons and process herein, and time having elapsed for her appearance and answering plaintiff's complaint, and she appearing not either in person or by an attorney, as to the complaint and summons served upon her herein; and a proper non-military affidavit has been made and filed herein, and an order declaring that the defendand was not engaged in the military service of the United States, as defined by the Act of Congress, and a default having been entered against her; and evidence having been produced on the part of the plaintiff herein and the plaintiff having closed his case, and the Court having duly considered the same and having arrived at his conclusions in the matter, from which it appears that the plaintiff is entitled to judgment as prayed for in his complaint upon the grounds of mental cruelty, and the court waives the necessity of filing findings of fact and conclusions of law, but finds that the allegations of plaintiff's complaint are true; now, therefore, it is

This case came on regularly for hearing before the Honorable Isaac McDougall, District Judge, on the 17 day of September, 1947. Plaintiff was present in person and with her attorneys, Black and Black of Pocatello, Idaho; defendant was not present, either in person or by counsel.

AND THE COURT having heard and considered all of the evidence and testimony in said action, and it thereby having been made to appear to this Court that the plaintiff and defendant intermarried at Hansen, Twin Falls County, Idaho, on or about the 10th day of July, 1940, and ever since have been and now are husband and wife; and that the plaintiff is now, and for more than six full weeks next preceding the commencement of this action, has been, a bona fide resident of the State of Idaho;

This case came regularly on for trial before the court this 11 September 1947 upon the complaint of plaintiff and the default of defendant, previously entered against him. The case records show that defendant was personally served with the summons and complaint in this case 12 August 1947 in Atchison county, Kansas, in the manner provided by the laws of the State of Idaho, and as authorized by this court's order of 1 August 1947.

Plaintiff appeared in person and by Everett E. Hunt and Edmund T. Brigham, her attorneys. No other parties appeared. The defendant has not appeared in this case in any manner to date.

Plaintiff and her witness were sworn and testified, and plaintiff's testimony in support of the allegations of her complaint was corrohorated by her witness in open court as required by law. The court has heard and considered the evidence and examined the case records, and has signed and entered its findings of fact and conclusions of law.

Accordingly, plaintiff is now absolutely and immediately divorced from defendant, and both parties are hence now restored to the status of single, unmarried persons. Plaintiff's former surname of "Cook" is also now restored to her.

FLORENCE BRENNAN, Plaintiff,	)
vs.	)	DECREE OF DIVORCE
PATRICK F. BRENNAN, Defendant.	)

This cause came duly on for hearing before the undersigned, Judge of the above entitled Court, in the Chambers of this Court in the Bonneville County Court House at Idaho Falls, this 5th day of September, 1947, the plaintiff appearing in person and also by her attorney, H. J. Swanson, of Pocatello, Idaho. The defendant appeared not either in person or by attorney, and thereupon the court proceeded to examine the files, records and proceedings had in this cause and finds therefrom that the summons has been personally served on the defendant in Idaho, as provided for by the laws of Idaho. That the time within which the defendant may appear and plead to the complaint has expired and that the defendant has failed to appear. That an affidavit is on file showing that the defendant was not in the military service at the time of the commencement of this action, and is not in the military service at the date hereof; and that a Clerk's Default has been entered as provided for by law, and the entry has been approved and confirmed by this court. That the court has jurisdiction over the parties to this action and over the subject matter thereof. That thereupon the plaintiff and her corroborating witness were duly sworn and their evidence taken, and the court having heard the evidence and having considered the same, and being fully advised, finds that all of the allegations of the complaint are true and that the plaintiff is entitled to a Decree of Divorce as prayed for in the complaint. The Court further finds that prior to the commencement of the filing of this action the parties hereto agreed between themselves that the property described or referred to in the complaint shall be set aside and be the property of the plaintiff, free from any claim thereto, or right, title, or interest therein on the part of the defendant, which arrangement and which agreement the Court having considered does hereby approve and confirm; and it further appears to this court that the name of the plaintiff before her marriage to the defendant was Florence Henderson. NOW, THEREFORE,

The Court having heard the evidence and having considered the same, and being fully advised in the premises, and good cause appearing therefor,

IT IS ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff, Florence Brennan, and the defendant, Patrick F. Brennan, be and the same are hereby dissolved and set aside, and that each of the said parties be and each hereby is restored to the status of a single person.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the community property which has been accumulated between the parties hereto during the time they have been married, and consisting of certain household furniture, cooking utensils and the usual furnishings for a three room apartment, and also consisting of one 1941 Oldsmobile automobile, be and the same hereby is awarded to and set aside to the plaintiff as her sole and separate property, free from any claim thereto, or right, title or interest therein on the part of the defendant.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the name of the plaintiff by which she was known before her marriage to the defendant, namely: Florence Henderson, be and the same hereby is restored to her.

That all material facts alleged in plaintiff's complaint are true;

That plaintiff at the time of filing her complaint was and had been an actual resident in good faith of The State of Idaho for more than Ten (10) Years next preceding the filing of said complaint, and was at the time of filing the complaint a resident of The State of Idaho; and

The Court finds that the defendant, FLOYD JAMES TAPLIN, has been guilty of willful neglect and has failed to furhish the plaintiff with the common necessaries of life, due to his idleness, and that he is an able-bodied man able and capable of earning the said necessaries of life, if he desired to do so; and that said neglect of the plaintiff by the defendant was willful neglect of plaintiff.

This cause came on regularly to be heard by the court on the 23rd day of September, 1947, the plaintiff appearing with his attorney, J. P. Reed, and the defendant making no appearance. JUDGMENT

The above matter came on regularly for trial before the above court sitting in regular session in Gooding, Idaho, this 12th day of August, 1947, the plaintiff appearing in person and by her attorneys, James, Shaw & James, and the defendant appearing not at all. It appeared further and the court finds that the defendant had been duly and regularly served with process and that he had failed to answer within the time fixed by law, and that the default of the defendant for his failure to appear has been duly entered by the Clerk of the Court.

Whereupon, evidence duly corroborated, was introduced on behalf of the plaintiff in support of her complaint from which it appears and the court finds that the allegations of the complaint are true and correct and that the defendant is guilty of extreme cruelty as charged in the said complaint, and that the plaintiff is and for more than six weeks immediately prior to the filing of the complaint herein has been an actual bona fide resident of the State of Idaho. The court further finds and adjudges that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States of America or of any nation allied with the United States of America, and has not been in such service since the institution of this suit.

WHEREFORE, It is ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED, that the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between theplaintiff and defendant are hereby absolutely dissolved and that each of said parties is hereby restored to the status of a single person; and that the custody and control of the minor child of plaintiff and defendant, namely, Cheryl, is hereby awarded to the plaintiff.

JUDGMENT

The above matter came on regularly for trial before the above court sitting in regular session in Gooding, Idaho, this 22 day of August, 1947, the plaintiff appearing in person and by his attorneys, James, Shaw & James, and the defendant appearing not at all. It appeared further and the court finds that the defendant had been duly and regularly served with process, had entered an appearance by filing a demurrer to the plaintiff's complaint and thereafter withdrawn such demurrer and refused to plead further and that the default of the defendant for her failure to plead further has been duly entered by the Clerk of the court.

Whereupon, evidence duly corroborated was introduced on behalf of the plaintiff in support of his complaint from which it appears and the court finds that the allegations of the complaint are true and correct and that the defendant is guilty of extreme cruelty as charged in the said complaint, and that the plaintiff is and for more than six weeks immediately prior to the filing of the complaint herein has been an actual bona fide resident of the State of Idaho. The court further finds and adjudges that the defendant is not in the military service of the United States of America or of any nation allied with the United States of America and has not been in such service since the institution of this suit.

WHEREFORE, It is ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED That the bonds of matrimony heretofore and now existing between the plaintiff and defendant are hereby absolutely dissolved and that each of said parties is hereby restored to the status of a single person; and further, that the plaintiff is the owner as his sole and separate property of a certain 1940 Chevrolet Sedan automobile, Motor No. 2766,680, Serial No. 1KA10-1477, and of certain bedding now in his possession. That the defendant be awarded the sum of $150.00, which sum has already been paid to the defendant, which shall include her attorney fee and costs, the refrigerator and electric cooker now in defendant's possession; and that the said defendant retain the ownership of all property owned by her at the time of the marriage of plaintiff and defendant.
